191. Clerks Report

- Grant application – the grant monies of £6k for the speed reduction equipment has been received and most of it has been spend as above. The above invoice has gone to LCC and we now need more posts installing.
- Bank account closure – this is now closed
- CiLCA training – the Clerk explained that although she has completed the work the assessors keep referring it so she has regrettfully decided to stop

192. Planning:-

- a) Bowmans – no update
- b) Kings Head – no update.
- c) The Elms – the Clerk had received a notification that the planning conditions had now been satisfied

193. Quotes for Tree Work

The Parish Council received 3 different quotes for tree work and it was resolved to award the work to Hand Bros for a price of £400 plus VAT. Cllr Hand abstained.

194. Grass Cutting

There are several areas in the churchyard that could do with a tidy up – as these weren't on the specification for the grass cutting contract it was resolved that £200 would be paid to our current grass cutting operative for this extra work. The Clerk will get all the details for the specification itemised and checked by the Councillors to ensure that next year's contract has everything that is included.

195. Landscape Maintenance at Village Green

There are logs to be taken off the Village Green which is included in the quotation received at the meeting tonight.

196. Footpaths

Apparently there is currently no timescale for the Planning Inspectorate to make a decision – however the Clerk will email LCC monthly for any updates.

196. Items for next meeting

Footpath
Grass cutting specification
Speed reduction installation
Precept
Church Lights re Christmas
